

Please make no changes to Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. We are very happy with our current status since being added to the no-contact list.

Please get off your butts and make the TV broadcasters abandon their analog signal and convert to digital while you are at it.